What we do

How do we protect your personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How do we collect your personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- give us your contact information
- apply for financing or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why you can't limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when you limit sharing for an account you hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
